

Scout leader or parent helper

Just because you have grown older does not mean that your life as a spejder ends. It's possible either to become a parent assistant, or scout leader without any prior experience!

You will have a team of passionate and experienced scout leaders to guide and teach you along the way – all we ask in return is your interest and time.

Expectations to parent assistants:

- You have interest and want to do some scout work
- Prior experience with scout work is not required
- You can participate in the weekly meetings on a weekly or biweekly basis (cancellation is expected in due time)
- You follow through on the weekly meeting activities that have been arranged by the scout leaders - Short activity introduction will be given each time
- You participate as a helper/leader for the entire group
- You participate in the assignments below along the way, if you have time and interest

Expectations to Scout leaders:

- Participate in the weekly meetings (cancellation is expected in due time).
- Plan and prepare scout meetings in cooperation with the other scout leaders. Approximately 4 yearly planning meetings + ad hoc preparation/shopping.
- Participation in the sections field trips and camps. Approximately 3-4 weekends and summer camp.

Offer: Participation in the scout group leader meetings, courses etc.

As scout leader prior experience is not required! An interest and effort to the job is key – the rest you will learn on the go from your fellow scout leaders.

In return you get....

- A change to join your child's after school activity
- An opportunity to improve your Danish skills
- Leadership experience
- Experience with working with children
- A chance to improve or maintain your organizational skills
- Fantastic and passionate fellow leaders
- An opportunity to build friendships of your own with Danes and other internationals
